Marge Schott

President & Chief Executive Officer

Marge Schott, the First Lady of Cincinnati baseball, saw her dreams come true in 1990. Her Cincinnati Reds went "wire-to-wire" to win the National League Western Division championship and then went on to capture the N.L. pennant, followed by a stunning World Series sweep over Oakland.

The Reds became the first N.L. team to be in first place every day in a 162-game season.

Mrs. Schott led the Reds' World Series victory parade and celebration at Fountain Square in downtown Cincinnati and she headed the Reds' contingent honored by President Bush at the White House following the Series.

While providing the leadership and financial support needed to build a winning team, Mrs. Schott has helped bring back the excitement of Reds baseball to Riverfront Stadium. The Reds have drawn more than 12 million fans to Riverfront in her six years as the club's principal owner. Season ticket sales have reached new team highs.

Providing Reds' fans with quality entertainment has been the top priority during her tenure as owner of the Reds. Mrs. Schott, a native and sixth generation resident of Cincinnati, had been a Limited Partner in the team since 1981 and then became the General Partner of the ownership group on Dec. 21, 1984. She became President and Chief Executive Officer on July 8, 1985.

In addition to the enjoyment of watching the Reds on the field, Mrs. Schott has had some thrills away from the Stadium as well. In 1989, she had lunch at the White House with President Bush; was a special honoree at a Women in Business luncheon during the President's Inauguration Week festivities; and made a baseball visit to Japan.

Among other highlights were a 1988 visit to the Vatican, where she presented the Pope with a Reds' jacket; a feature interview on the highly regarded "60 Minutes" TV show; and a salute by Savvy Magazine as the operator of one of the 40 largest businesses in the country to be headed by a woman.

In Dec., 1986, she was among 85 women entrepreneurs from all over the country who were honored by President Reagan at a White House reception. Earlier that year, she was named Woman of the Year by the American Legion Auxiliary at its national convention. Mrs. Schott was singled out for having made significant contributions to community life. She was inducted into the Communiplex Women's Hall of Fame for women in sports in 1987.

Mrs. Schott was inducted into the Ohio Women's Hall of Fame in Nov., 1985, for her achievements in business, industry and athletics. A year earlier, she was honored as one of the 1984 Women of the Year in Cincinnati, cited for her avid support of the arts, as a philanthropist to many organizations and as a trustee for several colleges. She is well-known for her role as hostess for the Reds' Rally, a major fund-raiser for the Children's Heart Association at Children's Hospital, and for her work with the famed Cincinnati Zoo.

Mrs. Schott became a businesswoman by necessity when her husband, Charles, died in 1968, leaving her in charge of a business empire that included such divergent holdings as an auto agency, cement, truck and brick companies and real estate holdings. She has since added holdings of her own.

It took her 2½ years to convince General Motors to make her the first U.S. woman ever to be awarded a major metropolitan area G.M. dealership. Later, she became the first woman ever named to the board of trustees of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Schott is one of only two women currently involved in primary ownership of a major league baseball team, joining Mrs. Jean Yawkey of the Boston Red Sox, who took over her team upon the death of her husband.

STEPHEN H. SCHOTT, Executive Vice President

Schott works closely with Mrs. Schott and oversees all of the Reds' operations. He joined the club in Sept., 1988, after four years as a financial consultant on Wall Street in New York City. He is a Senior Vice President of Shearson Lehman Hutton/American Express, where he continues as a member of the company's Chairman's Council and Director's Council. He previously was a member of the President's Council and Executive Council of Drexel, Burnham & Lambert. A native of Cincinnati, Schott played football at Denison University in Granville, OH. He received a degree in Broadcasting and Legal Studies. He continued his studies abroad in the Business program at Warnborough College in Oxford, England. Schott is currently a Director on the State of Ohio Sports & Law Commission and a board member of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce Sports Council. He also serves on many community and state boards and committees.

BOB QUINN, Vice President & General Manager

Quinn's first year in Cincinnati was a resounding success. He was a key architect in building the 1990 World Champion Reds and his efforts were rewarded with his selection as Major League Executive of the Year by The Sporting News — selected in a poll of his peers. After joining the team on Oct. 13, 1989, Quinn engineered trades that brought relief ace Randy Myers, infielders Hal Morris and Bill Doran, and outfielders Billy Hatcher and Glenn Braggs to the Reds. Bob's extensive baseball background began with two years (1959-60) as GM of the Eau Claire team. After several years in private business, he returned to baseball as GM of the Reading Phillies (1967-68) & the Omaha Royals (1969-70). He was named Class AA Executive of the Year by The Sporting News in '67 and American Association Executive of the Year in '69. Quinn joined the Milwaukee Brewers as Director of Minor League Operations in 1971. He spent 12 years with Cleveland, beginning in 1973 as Director of Scouting & Minor League Operations. He was promoted to VP/Player Development & Scouting in 1980. Quinn joined the N.Y. Yankees in Sept., 1986, as Assistant VP and was promoted to VP/Baseball Administration the following month. He was named VP & GM in June, 1988. Quinn's grandfather, J.A. Quinn, was GM of four major league teams. His father, John, was GM of the Boston and Milwaukee Braves for 23 years and the Philadelphia Phillies for 13 years. A graduate of Marquette University, Quinn was born in Boston. He and his wife, Kathryn, have two sons, Mike and Bob.

The Manager

Lou Piniella

No. 41

Born: 8-28-43, Tampa, FL

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 200

Batted: Right

Threw: Right

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER: After spending his entire major league baseball career (1968-89) in the American League — first as a player and then as a coach, manager and front office executive — Piniella made the transition to the National League in 1990 with sensational results . . . He guided the Reds to their first Western Division title since 1979; their first N.L. pennant since 1976; and then a stunning World Series sweep over Oakland . . . Despite a shortened spring training, Lou had his team ready to go when the regular season began . . . The Reds set a team record by winning their first 9 games and then stayed in first place the entire season to become the first N.L. team to go wire-to-wire in a 162-game season . . . The Reds defeated Pittsburgh in the NLCS as Piniella became the third person in major league history to play and then manage in Championship Series games (joining Dave Johnson & Hal Lanier) . . . When the Reds swept Oakland in the World Series, Piniella became the first manager whose team swept the Series in his first year with a club . . . Lou was named manager of the Reds on Nov. 3, 1989, signing a 3-year contract . . . He began his managing career with the New York Yankees in 1986, leading the team to second place in the American League East with a 90-72 record, the fifth best record in the major leagues . . . His 1987 team had nearly the same mark, 89-73, finishing fourth in the division . . . After the season, Lou took over as General Manager of the Yankees on Oct. 17 . . . He resigned that position in May, 1988, to assume other responsibilities with the team, then returned to the dugout as manager on June 23, replacing Billy Martin . . . The team finished 45-48 under Piniella, giving him a managerial record of 224-193 (.537) with New York . . . He was a special adviser for the Yankees in 1989, as well as a Yankee TV broadcaster . . . Piniella worked with his New York teammates as a batting instructor from 1981 until his retirement as an active player in June, 1984 . . . He was a coach from that time until being named manager after the 1985 season . . . Piniella's overall managerial record (Cincinnati & New York) is 315-264 (.544).

PLAYING CAREER: Piniella had a long, distinguished career as a player, including 18 major league seasons in a 23-year pro career . . . He appeared in four World Series, batting .319 in 22 games, and in five Championship Series, batting .305 in 18 games . . . Lou moved around a lot in the early days of his career . . . After signing into the Cleveland organization in 1962, he was drafted by the Washington Senators after his first pro season, traded to Baltimore where he made his major league debut in 1964, swapped back to Cleveland in 1966 and was then claimed by Seattle in the 1968 expansion draft . . . After being traded to the A.L.'s other 1969 expansion team, Kansas City, just prior to Opening Day, Piniella's career took a dramatic turn . . . He was the first-ever batter for the Royals, led off with a double and then scored the first run . . . Lou went on to win A.L. Rookie of the Year honors and become one of the team's most popular players and best clutch hitters . . . After five seasons in Kansas City, Piniella was traded to the Yankees and remained in New York in various capacities until joining the Reds as manager . . . He batted .300 or better five times in his 11 Yankee seasons after accomplishing that feat twice in Kansas City . . . Lou had a .291 average for his major league career . . . His .295 average for the Yankees ranked 11th best in club history when he retired . . . Lou also batted .300 or better 3 times in his minor league career . . . He was Rookie of the Year in the Carolina League in 1963 . . . He was selected to All-Star teams in the Carolina League (1963); Pacific Coast League (1968); and the American League (1972).

PERSONAL: Louis Victor Piniella and his wife Anita (Garcia) live in Allendale, NJ . . . They have 3 children: Lou Jr. (1-11-69), Kristi (12-25-71) and Derek (4-4-79) . . . He is involved in the operation of restaurants in both New York and Kansas City . . . Lou is of Spanish ancestry and grew up in Tampa, FL, which was the Reds' spring training home . . . He graduated from Jesuit H.S. there and was a prep All-American in basketball . . . In his only year of competition at the University of Tampa, Piniella was named to the NCAA College Division All-American team in baseball . . . Coach — Cincinnati 1990 —

Retired Uniform Numbers

The Reds have officially retired two uniform numbers — the No. 1 worn by the late Fred Hutchinson and the No. 5 worn by Johnny Bench.

Hutchinson managed the Reds from 1959-1964, winning the National League pennant in 1961. His No. 1 was retired after he died of cancer in 1964.

Bench's No. 5 was retired Aug. 11, 1984. Bench played more than 16 seasons for the Reds and retired following the 1983 season as the team's all-time leader in career home runs (389) and runs batted in (1,376). He won two N.L. Most Valuable Player Awards (1970 & 1972); World Series MVP (1976); N.L. Rookie of the Year (1968); and he holds the N.L. record for career home runs by a catcher (327). He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, in 1989 — in his first year of eligibility.

Riverfront Turf History

A new artificial playing surface was installed at Riverfront Stadium prior to the 1988 season. The AstroTurf-8 allows water to flow through the surface to a drainage system and virtually eliminates standing water, making the field playable minutes after a rain. Water flows through the turf to permeable asphalt and crushed rock below. The new surface has fewer seams than previous surfaces at Riverfront Stadium. A synthetic warning track was also installed. This is the third AstroTurf surface at Riverfront Stadium. The original (1970) was replaced prior to the 1979 season.

Keith Brown

No. 38

Pitcher

Born: 2-14-64, Flagstaff, AZ

Ht: 6-4

Bats: Both

Wt: 215

Throws: Right

ACQUIRED: Reds' No. 21 draft choice, regular phase, June, 1986. (Scout Roger Ferguson)

1990 SEASON: Brown spent most of the season with Nashville, where he was a starter (3-4, 2.98 in 9 starts) until the end of May, then moved to the bullpen for the rest of the year and had great success . . . In the first extensive relief duty of his career, Keith pitched 30 times out of the Sounds' bullpen, going 4-4 with a 1.80 ERA and 9 saves . . . He hit the third of 3 consecutive Cincinnati homers off Houston's Jim Deshaies in the 5th inning on June 16 at Riverfront (following Sabo & Larkin), then belted a pair of HRs the following day against the Astros . . . Eric's 21 stolen bases (in 24 tries) in 1990 give him 233 for his career—the 3rd best total in team history . . . He is 233-for-268 (87%) for his major league career . . . Homered against every N.L. opponent except St. Louis in 1990 . . . POST-SEASON: Davis hit .216 (8-37) in post-season play . . . He was 4-for-23 (.174) in the NLCS vs. Pittsburgh . . . Became the 22nd player in history to homer in his first World Series at-bat, when he connected off Oakland's Dave Stewart for a 2-run blast in the 1st inning of Game 1 at Riverfront . . . Eric hit .286 (4-14) with 5 RBIs in the Series, before he suffered a severe kidney injury in the 1st inning of Game 4 in Oakland while trying to make a diving catch in left field on a ball hit by Willie McGee . . . His combined Chattanooga/Nashville totals for 1990 included a .313 average, 26 doubles, 23 homers and 87 RBIs . . . Named American Association Player of the Week for June 24-30 and the league's Player of the Month for August . . . Terry missed nearly all of July with ankle problems . . . Singled off Fernando Valenzuela on Sept. 14 at Riverfront for his first major league hit . . . He was eligible for post-season play, but did not appear in either the NLCS or World Series.

CAREER: Signed out of a tryout camp in 1982, Lee began his pro career late that summer at Eugene in the Northwest League . . . Returned to Vermont in '85 and earned team MVP honors, helping his club win the Eastern League championship . . . He spent 6 months in a cast and although the fracture healed, his ankle problems continued . . . He has since had 3 operations in an effort to end the often-time severe pain . . . Lee sat out all of the 1987 season, most of 1988 and a good portion of 1989 . . . The cause of the pain is still not known.

Joe Oliver

No. 9

Catcher

Born: 7-24-65, Memphis, TN

Ht: 6-3

Bats: Right

Wt: 210

Throws: Right

ACQUIRED: Reds' No. 2-B draft choice, regular phase, June, 1983. (Scout George Zuraw)

1990 SEASON: Oliver handled most of the catching duties over the first half of the season (starting 63 of the 79 games before the All-Star break), then platooned with Jeff Reed during the second half of the year . . . Joe started well, hitting .280 through May 13 . . . He hit 2 home runs in a game for the first time in his major league career on May 3 at New York and he drove in a Reds' season-high 6 runs on May 13 vs. the Cubs at Riverfront . . . From June 10-July 23, Oliver hit .290 (29-100) . . . Three of his 8 homers in 1990 came off Zane Smith . . . Joe hit .283 (51-180) against left-handed pitchers . . . Defensively, he led N.L. catchers in fielding (.992) . . . Threw out 34 of 98 runners (35%) trying to steal . . . POST-SEASON: Oliver hit .250 (8-32) in the post-season . . . He was 2-for-14 (.143) in the NLCS vs. Pittsburgh, starting 4 of the 6 games . . . Both of his hits vs. the Pirates came in the Reds' Game 3 victory . . . Hit safely in all 4 World Series games vs. Oakland (6-18, .333) and drove in 2 runs . . . Joe singled in the winning run in the 10th inning of Game 2 against Oakland relief ace Dennis Eckersley.

CAREER: Joe struggled as a hitter, but was a star behind the plate in his first two pro seasons . . . He was the top fielding catcher (.989) in the Pioneer League in 1983, making just 5 errors and leading the league in assists . . . In 1984, managers voted him the catcher with the best arm in the Midwest League, where he finished second with 85 assists . . . The Florida State League managers agreed with that in 1985 and also voted him the best defensive catcher . . . His 84 assists led all catchers . . . Oliver's .269 average was more than 50 points higher than his first two pro seasons, thanks to a .349 average in home games . . . He boosted his average even higher in 1986 and was a major factor in his team's drive to win the Eastern League title . . . An injury required a cast on Joe's right index finger for 2 months in 1987 when he was having his best season as a hitter . . . A spring training knee operation shortened Oliver's 1988 season, which was divided between Chattanooga, where he did not make an error in 25 games, and Nashville, where he had just 7 in 65 games . . . After 6 years in the minor leagues, Joe reached the majors in 1989 . . . Opened the season at Nashville and hit .292 for the Sounds, then was called up to the Reds on July 15 . . . 1990 SEASON: Rijo was named the Reds' Outstanding Pitcher for 1990 by the Cincinnati chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America . . . Jose was a dominating force in the Reds' stretch drive to the Western Division title . . . In 8 starts from Aug. 22-Sept. 26, he was 6-1 with a 1.23 ERA (9 ER; 66 IP) and he pitched 3 straight complete game victories in his last 3 starts before the Reds clinched the division crown . . . Jose was 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA (4 ER; 36 IP) and 40 strikeouts in 4 starts from Sept. 12-26, including a masterful 2-hitter with 12 strikeouts for a 4-0 win over the Giants on Sept. 17 . . . Named N.L. Player of the Week for Sept. 17-23 (2-0, 0.50; 18 SO in 18 IP) . . . He beat the Dodgers on July 31 to break an 8-game Reds' losing streak, then downed San Diego in his next start, on Aug. 5, to stop a 3-game skid . . . Rijo allowed 3 earned runs or fewer in 25 of his 29 starts, including each of his final 13 regular season games . . . His 14 wins, 7 complete games (all coming over his final 14 starts) and 197 IP were all career highs . . . Opponents hit only .212 against him, 2nd best in the N.L. . . . He was 5th in the league in ERA; tied for 5th in complete games; tied for 7th in wins; 8th in winning percentage (.636); and 10th in strikeouts . . . Allowed only 10 home runs, including just 1 in his final 8 starts (62 innings) . . . Jose was on the disabled list from June 29-July 21 with a muscle strain in his right shoulder . . . POST SEASON: Rijo was 3-0 with a 2.28 ERA (7 ER; 27.2 IP) in 4 post-season starts . . . He was 1-0, 4.38 (6 ER; 12.1 IP) in the NLCS vs. Pittsburgh . . . He was not involved in the decision in Game 1 (5.1 IP, 4 H, 3 R) and he won, 5-3, in Game 4 (7 IP, 6 H, 3 R) . . . Jose was named World Series MVP after going 2-0, 0.59 (1 ER; 15.1 IP) in 2 starts vs. Oakland . . . He pitched 7 scoreless innings (7 H) for a 7-0 win in Game 1 and then won Game 4 by a 2-1 score (8.1 IP, 2 H, 1 R) . . . He retired the last 20 batters he faced in Game 4, before Randy Myers took over and recorded the final 2 outs.

CAREER: Jose began his pro career with the Yankees' Bradenton farm team at the age of 16 in 1981 . . . In 1982, he led the Appalachian League with 3 shutouts . . . Rijo was the MVP of the Florida State League in 1983, leading the league in wins, ERA, complete games and shutouts before making a late-season jump to Nashville . . . He opened the 1984 season with the Yankees at age 18 in impressive style, allowing just 1 run in 12.1 innings in 6 relief appearances . . . Jose's rushed trip to the majors eventually caught up with him and he spent the last 2 months in Columbus . . . He moved into the Oakland organization and led the Pacific Coast League in both strikeouts (179 in 149 innings) and walks (108) in 1985, when he had a 2.90 ERA in 24 starts for Tacoma and earned a mid-August promotion to Oakland, posting a 6-4 record . . . Jose spent all of the 1986 season with Oakland, bouncing back and forth between starting and relieving . . . In 2 consecutive April starts against Seattle, he struck out 16 and 14 batters . . . Rijo divided the 1987 season between Oakland and Tacoma, fanning 134 batters in 137 innings . . . In 1988, Jose made his N.L. mark first as a relief pitcher . . . He had a 6-1 record and a 2.20 ERA in 30 trips out of the bullpen . . . Then, in June, he was switched to the starting rotation . . . He was just as effective, giving up 2 hits and 1 run in each of his first two starts . . . But Jose was not lucky . . . In his first 5 July starts, he gave up 1 run in each game, but lost twice by 1-0 scores . . . He also had a pair of 2-0 losses later . . . Right elbow tendinitis limited his pitching from mid-August on . . . His final 2.39 ERA ranked fifth in the N.L. and hitters had only a .209 average against him, fourth lowest among pitchers with 100 innings or more . . . In 1989, Rijo was 4-0 with a 1.57 ERA over his first 9 starts as the Reds won all 9 games . . . He was named N.L. Player of the Week for May 8-14 (2-0, 0.68) . . . Pitched his first major league shutout on June 9 in Los Angeles . . . Began having back problems in late June . . . Went on the DL on July 17 and was out for the season after a bone scan revealed a lumbar vertebra stress fracture.

His home run power continued into the middle of the season as he hit 5 HRs in May and 6 in June . . . In 1986 at Denver, Sabo led all 3rd basemen in the American Association in fielding (.969), making only 9 errors in 117 games . . . Sabo was named MVP of the Nashville team in 1987 despite being limited to 91 games (missing all of August) by finger, shoulder, hamstring and knee injuries . . . He had arthroscopic surgery on his left knee on August 26 . . . Sabo had a dream season in 1988 when he was named N.L. Rookie of the Year and was the only rookie on either team in the All-Star Game . . . Chris led N.L. third basemen in fielding (.995); finished 3rd with 40 doubles; and was 4th with 46 stolen bases, the most by a Reds' rookie since Bob Bescher set the club rookie record with 54 in 1909 . . . Through the first 3 months of the season, Sabo went hitless 2 games in a row only once and took a .312 average into the All-Star break . . . He tied a major league record for 3rd basemen with 11 assists on Apr. 7 . . . Sabo was named by the local BBWAA chapter as Newcomer of the Year and was 3rd baseman on the All-Rookie team . . . Sabo's 1989 season was cut short by a left knee injury . . . 1990 Season Review

WORLD CHAMPS!! . . . In their first year under Manager Lou Piniella, the Reds won the 1990 National League Western Division title (91-71 regular season record; 5 games ahead of 2nd place Los Angeles); defeated Pittsburgh in the League Championship Series, 4 games to 2, to win their first NL pennant since 1976; then swept Oakland in the World Series. The Reds won the World Series for the fifth time in team history (previously 1919, 1940, 1975, 1976). The Reds have won their last 9 World Series games — the final game vs. Boston in 1975; a 4-game sweep over the Yankees in '76; and the 4-game sweep over Oakland in 1990.

WIRE-TO-WIRE . . . The Reds opened the 1990 regular season with a 9-game winning streak, the best start in team history. They stayed in first place every day to become the first NL team to go wire-to-wire in a 162-game season (clinching the West title on Sept. 29). The 1984 Detroit Tigers are the only American League team to accomplish that feat. The 1923 N.Y. Giants (NL) and the 1927 N.Y. Yankees (AL) were the only teams to be in first place every day in a 154-game season.

FAN-TASTIC . . . Reds' home paid attendance for the 1990 regular season was 2,400,892 — the fourth best season total in club history. Game 6 of the NLCS vs. Pittsburgh (Oct. 12) at Riverfront Stadium attracted 56,079 fans, the second largest home crowd in Reds' history, topped only by 56,393 on Oct. 16, 1975 for Game 5 of the World Series vs. Boston. The Reds' 1990 regular season road attendance of 2,174,073 was the second best total in team history, topped only by 2,320,616 in 1978.

NUMERO UNO . . . The Reds led the NL in team batting (.265) for the first time since 1976 and in team fielding (.983) for the first time since 1980. Three Reds led the NL in fielding at their positions — third baseman Chris Sabo (.966); outfielder Billy Hatcher (.997); and catcher Joe Oliver (.992). The Reds committed the fewest errors (102) in the league and led the NL in outfield assists with 47. In pitching, the Reds' 3.39 team ERA ranked 2nd to Montreal's 3.37.

WHAT A RELIEF! . . . The Reds' "Nasty Boys" bullpen led the NL with a 2.93 ERA during the regular season and then turned in a spectacular post-season performance with a 0.29 ERA (1 ER; 31.1 IP), a 2-1 record, 5 saves and 33 strikeouts. Reds' relievers were 1-1, with a record-setting 4 saves and a 0.49 ERA (1 ER; 18.1 IP) in the NLCS and 1-0 with 1 save and a 0.00 ERA (13 IP) in the World Series. Randy Myers & Rob Dibble were named co-MVPs for the NLCS. For the regular season, the Reds and Expos tied for first place in the Rolands Relief Man team bullpen standings.

HOME & AWAY . . . The Reds were 46-35 at home during the regular season and 45-36 on the road, equalling their best road record since the 1976 Reds went 53-28 away from Riverfront.

EASTERN EDGE . . . The Reds were 45-27 against Eastern Division teams during the regular season, their best record vs. the East since going 48-24 in 1975. The Reds were 46-44 against the West.

DOUBLE TIME . . . The Reds set a team record with 284 doubles (2nd in the NL), breaking the old mark of 281 set in 1968.

TRIPLE THREAT . . . The Reds hit 40 triples, their best total since hitting 45 in 1980.

QUICK START . . . The Reds scored in the first inning of 52 regular season games, winning 39 of those games.

BOUNCING BACK . . . The Reds came from behind in 40 of their regular season wins.

ALL-STARS . . . Five Reds made the NL All-Star team, their most All-Stars since 1979 (also 5). Jack Armstrong was the NL's starting pitcher, throwing 2 scoreless innings in his All-Star debut. Chris Sabo was voted by fans as the starting third baseman (his second All-Star appearance and first start). Barry Larkin was a reserve shortstop (for the third time) and relievers Rob Dibble and Randy Myers both made their first All-Star appearances.

AWARD WINNERS . . . Jack Armstrong was NL Pitcher of the Month in May. Six Reds earned NL Player of the Week honors — Barry Larkin (Apr. 16-22); Eric Davis (June 18-24); Hal Morris (July 2-8); Randy Myers (July 12-15); Bill Doran (Sept. 10-16); and Jose Rijo (Sept. 17-23).

Rules of Interest

PLAYER LIMITS: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide hits plus total walks plus hit-by-pitch by at bats plus total walks plus hit-by-pitch and sacrifice flies. (Times awarded first base on interference or obstruction are not figured into on-base percentage.)

DETERMINING PERCENTAGE OF GAMES WON AND LOST: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

TRADING REGULATIONS: The trading deadline is midnight July 31. Waivers are required for all deals from Aug. 1 until 5:00 p.m. (ET) the day after the regular season ends. No waivers are required the remaining 10 months of the year.

BATTING AND ERA CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: 502 or more plate appearances, 162 or more innings pitched.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (A) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (B) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING MAGIC NUMBER: To figure "Magic Number" in pennant race, compute the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE: Pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all 3 of the following conditions: (1) he is the finishing pitcher in game won by his club; (2) he is not the winning pitcher; (3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; (b) or he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base or at bat or on deck; (c) or he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

NIGHT GAME: A night game is any game with a scheduled starting time later than 5 p.m.

History of the Reds

The history of professional baseball begins in Cincinnati, where the "ancestors" of the current Cincinnati Reds, The Red Stockings, began play more than a century ago.

That first professional team, led by Harry and George Wright, played on a spot where Union Terminal on Cincinnati's near West Side now stands. Its first recorded game was a practice contest against a "Picked Nine" from Cincinnati, April 17, 1869, which was won by the Red Stockings, 24-15. After six more games of this first "pre-season" the Reds embarked on their famous tour. The first regular game was scheduled against the Antioch Nine on May 31, but that became the first rainout in professional baseball history. The first official game took place the next day, June 1, 1869 as the Red Stockings defeated the Mansfield Independents, 48-14.

That first Red Stockings team that was organized by Harry Wright, a Newport, Ky., jeweler, was fabulous. During the first two years of play the team went 130 consecutive games without a loss before the Brooklyn Atlantics finally beat the Red Stockings in June of 1870.

In 1876 the National League was founded and the Red Stockings became a charter member, although the club dropped out of the league in 1881 for 9 years because the league would not permit sale of beer in the park. The Red Stockings joined the American Association for the 1882-89 seasons, but rejoined the National League in 1890. Cincinnati also had a club in the Union Association in 1884.

The turn of the century saw one of the most colorful men ever associated with the team take over the presidency of the club. August "Garry" Herrmann was the club president from 1902 until 1927 when he was forced to retire because of blindness.

A host of famous players paraded through the Herrmann regime. Noodles Hahn was a standout pitcher and Cy Seymour won the Reds' first batting championship, hitting .377 in 1905, a mark that still stands in the Cincinnati record book.

And later came Edd Roush, an all-time great centerfielder, and Heinie Groh, the famous third baseman who used a bottle bat. They formed the nucleus of Cincinnati's first pennant winner in 1919 and then beat the Chicago White Sox in the World Series.

Players such as Eppa Rixey, who holds the club record with 179 career wins and Bubbles Hargrave, the first catcher ever to win a batting title, kept the Reds in the running during the 20's, but there wasn't another pennant until 1939.

After Herrmann resigned control of the club in the late 20's, Sidney Weil assumed command. When the depression crippled him, Powel Crosley purchased the Reds, more for civic purposes than any other cause. It was strongly rumored that the Cincinnati franchise might be moved and Crosley felt that the city needed a major league baseball team.

Crosley, the famous radio tycoon, was sold on the franchise by Larry MacPhail, the club's general manager. MacPhail, who had made a name for himself at Columbus, was one of the early promoters and opened up a new era of baseball when the Reds became the first team to play at night. Lights were installed at Crosley Field and the Reds and Phillies met in the first night game on May 24, 1935.

Two years later a new chapter opened in Cincinnati as Warren Giles was named the club's general manager. Although the Reds finished last in Giles' first year, the team began to move in 1938, jumping to fourth. By 1939 the club had matured into the National League's best. The Reds won back-to-back pennants in '39-'40 and captured the World Series in 1940, beating the Detroit Tigers in an exciting seven-game series.

Some of the great names of Reds' history were on those clubs. Paul Derringer, Bucky Walters and Johnny Vander Meer were well-known pitchers. Ernie Lombard, Frank McCormick and Walters were Most Valuable Player winners.

World War II and age caught up with the Reds in the 40's and the club began rebuilding in the late 40's and early 50's. Ewell Blackwell became the first pitcher to pitch in six consecutive All-Star games. Ted Kluszewski was signed off the Indiana University campus.

But Giles left the Reds in 1951 and was named president of the National League. His successor was Gabe Paul who put together a powerful hitting team in the mid-fifties. The Reds nearly won the pennant in 1956, losing by two games to Brooklyn, but the fans fell in love with this team. The Reds hit the million mark in paid attendance for the first time and in '56 they tied the N.L. record for the most team home runs, 221. Birdie Tebbetts was named Manager of the Year.

Fred Hutchinson took command of the Reds in 1959 and in '61 they startled most baseball "experts" by winning the N.L. pennant. Frank Robinson, who had been Rookie of the Year in 1956, was Most Valuable Player, and Vada Pinson nearly won the batting title. Under Hutch, who died of cancer in 1964, the Reds remained close. They won 98 games in 1962, but finished third. They came within one game in 1964.

Rumors again spread in 1966 that the Reds would leave Cincinnati. They were silenced quickly, however, when a group of businessmen, headed by Francis L. Dale, purchased the Reds and pledged allegiance to the city with a 40-year lease, thus assuring construction of a new stadium.

The group named Bob Howsam General Manager in 1967, and six years later he moved up to the club presidency.

Sparky Anderson became the manager in 1970 and guided the team for nine seasons, leading the team to five Western Division titles; four National League pennants; and two World Championships.

The Reds moved into Riverfront Stadium June 30, 1970, ending a long association with Crosley Field, and before that Redland Field. A total of 4,543 games were played at the old park which was officially dedicated April 11, 1912. It was Redland Field then and became Crosley Field after Crosley purchased the Reds.

Riverfront Years

Reds fans said goodbye to Crosley Field and the first century of baseball's oldest professional team June 24, 1970 and six days later, a little over two years after the first spadeful of dirt was turned, Riverfront Stadium opened to a crowd of over 50,000 cheering fans.

From 1970, when the team won its first Western Division title, through 1979, when it won its sixth Divisional race, the Reds won more games and more titles than any other major league team.

The Reds piled up 953 regular season victories in the ten years of the 1970's, an average of 95.3 per season with a .593 winning percentage and an impressive mark of consistency.

Reds fans saw a total of 12 championships by the Reds, six Western Division titles (1970-72-73-75-76-79); four National League titles (1970-72-75-76); and back-to-back World Championships in 1975 and 1976.

General Manager Bob Howsam put together this "Team of the 70s" that earned its nickname of the "Big Red Machine." It was a team that excited fans everywhere, building a national following, and lured 21 million fans into Riverfront Stadium in the 10-year period.

At the heart of the team were four individuals — Johnny Bench, Joe Morgan, Tony Perez and Pete Rose — who were totally different in makeup, style and personality, but who were on a common path pointed toward the Hall of Fame. Among them, they provided power, speed, defense, clutch hitting and stability. Bench (1989) was the first to be inducted into the Hall at Cooperstown, followed by Morgan (1990).

The Reds so dominated the National League that they won MVP titles 6 times in an 8-year span. Bench won in 1970 and 1972, when he led the N.L. in both homers and RBIs; Rose in 1973 when he led the league in hitting for the third time; Morgan in 1975 and 1976, only the second N.L. player ever to win two consecutive seasons; and George Foster in 1977, when he set club records with 52 homers and 149 RBIs. Perez was never MVP, but earned an unmatched reputation for clutch hitting. Bench and Perez ranked 1-2 in the majors in RBIs for the '70s.

Surrounding them were outstanding players such as Dave Concepcion, who teamed with Morgan to give the Reds a double play combination who each won 5 Gold Gloves; Ken Griffey, who batted .307 in 9 years with the Reds; Foster, who averaged 32 homers and 107 RBIs over a 7-year period; and Cesar Geronimo, a 4-time Gold Glove winner.

Other memorable moments came in 1978 when Rose hit in 44 straight games, a modern N.L. record, and Tom Seaver pitched a no-hitter.

In 1981, Seaver became only the fifth pitcher in major league history to record 3,000 strikeouts. It was also a year in which the Reds had the best overall record in baseball, but did not qualify for post-season play because of the split-season, finishing second in both the first half and second half races.

The 1983 season marked the return to the Reds of Bob Howsam, architect of the "Team of the 70s." A year later, Howsam brought back Rose, who had been away for nearly six years, as playing manager.

Ownership of the team changed hands in December, 1984, when local businesswoman Marge Schott took control as General Partner.

Riverfront Stadium was the site of Rose's historic 4,192nd hit, breaking Ty Cobb's all-time major league record on Sept. 11, 1985. Tom Browning pitched the first perfect game in team history on Sept. 16, 1988 at Riverfront. Third baseman Chris Sabo earned National League Rookie of the Year honors in '88.

After finishing second in the NL West four consecutive years in the late 1980's (1985-88), the Reds returned to championship form in record-setting fashion in 1990.

Mrs. Schott brought in Bob Quinn as general manager and Lou Piniella as manager to begin the new decade. They helped guide the Reds to their first Western Division title since 1979 and their first National League pennant and World Series crown since '76.

The "Wire-to-Wire" Reds won their first nine games in 1990 — setting a team record for consecutive wins at the start of a season — and went on to become the first N.L. team to stay in first place every day in a 162-game season.

The Reds defeated Pittsburgh in a thrilling League Championship Series, then stunned the powerful Oakland Athletics with a four-game World Series sweep.

Quinn was named 1990 Major League Executive of the Year by The Sporting News.

Joe Nuxhall

The Reds' Broadcast Department is under the direction of Stephen H. Schott, the club's Executive Vice President.

Marty Brennaman and Joe Nuxhall return for their 18th season together on the Reds Radio Network. Brennaman, who will also call play-by-play for the Reds TV Network, has been named Sportscaster of the Year in Ohio nine times after earning that honor four times in Virginia. Marty joined the Reds broadcast team in 1974. Nuxhall, a former Cincinnati pitcher and a member of the Reds Hall of Fame, is in his 25th year as a Reds announcer.

The Reds Radio Network, one of the largest in professional sports, has affiliates in seven states. The flagship station is WLW (700 AM) in Cincinnati. All regular season and most pre-season games are aired on WLW and the Reds Radio Network.

Winning Ways

Reds' farm teams have combined for winning records in each of the last seven seasons — the only National League team and one of only three major league clubs (joining Milwaukee and the New York Yankees) to post winning records every year since 1984. In 1990, the six Cincinnati minor league teams combined for a .552 (385-312) winning percentage — the third best record among the 26 big league organizations.

SPRING TRAINING

The Reds' spring training home is Plant City, Florida, located approximately 20 miles east of Tampa off Interstate 4. The vast spring complex opened in 1988 in a scenic rural setting on Park Road and includes a 6,700 seat stadium; a cloverleaf of four additional fields; a separate infield; four indoor batting cages; and clubhouse, training and office facilities for major league and minor league personnel. The Reds' spring home has been in Hillsborough County, Florida, every year since 1931 (except for three years during World War II).
